

Field-based Natural History Courses In and About the Klamath Siskiyou

Dear Siskiyou Field Institute Participant:

You are registered to participate in Weather Watching. Please arrive to sign in and meet your instructor by 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 17. Class will conclude around 5:00 p.m.

Tentative Course Schedule:***

9:00 a.m. – Meet in the SFI classroom for student/instructor introductions and a presentation on weather forecasting by Ryan Aylward and Ryan Sanford.

11:30 – A brief weather walk on the SFI grounds.

12:00 – 1:00 p.m. – Lunch at SFI

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. – Carpool to the Illinois Valley Airport in O'Brien to set up and learn to use weather equipment, followed by a brief discussion of weather forecasting and wildfires, including how firefighters are equipped with weather kits.

3:00 p.m. – Head back to SFI classroom for a short presentation on weathergrams and some experimenting with weather-related imagery, calligraphy pens and brown paper. You will end the class with your own weathergrams to hang outside in your garden.

**Please note: Times are approximate and subject to change.*

Appropriate attire and supplies:

Sturdy Shoes

Binoculars

Hat

Water

Lunch/Snacks

Field Clothes, including rain gear

Waterproof notebook

Small Daypack

Warm hat and gloves recommended

Other Supplies: We will have art supplies, poetry collections and other materials for writing weathergrams. If you have your own calligraphy tools, please bring them.

Reference books/field guides: If you have a weather field guide, please bring it to class. SFI also has some fold-out guides available for use.

You are responsible for your own safety and should bring necessary medications (such as allergy medications, bee sting or insulin kits, sugar, etc.) you might need during this course. We suggest you tell other participants of a condition with which you might need their assistance (diabetes, allergic reaction, etc.).

Please note: Most SFI courses require at least some driving. Students often opt to carpool to course sites to minimize environmental impacts to the area. Please be aware, however, that there will be no liability on the on the part of Siskiyou Field Institute for carpooling activities. Carpooling is a voluntary action of the participants.

Directions:

SFI is located at 1241 Illinois River Road in Selma, OR.
